How ya going, long time no chat! hehe, umm, as for the Message Boards, access? Do you mean to the Pirate areas? I remember your old account had some access, you lost it, coz a user purge was run, and you had not logged on for sometime, (I think), umm, yeah, well tell me what ya want, and I will see what I can do, I know I can trust you (Dont I hehe), anyway, TAO.. yeah...

TAO (The Apple Odessa), umm, yeah well, like, we still Pirate stuff, but, we dont do titles anymore, etc etc, we dont have the time, we still know each other, and associate with each other heaps, Rad works with the BBS, as do I, and Infiltrator (A later TAO member), Vector One, is not on the boards, but is now writting Software for a few educational companys, and also some arcade stuff, (Which he is having trouble selling, coz ppl dont want to know about the //e, anyway)... Rad is also writting S/Ware for an Educational company in his spare time (As well as working on the BBS, and working at work).

We still crack/release S/Ware, (With out titles), usually, you might see bought to you by The Apple Odessa, or whateva, we get a bit of GS stuff, umm, and most of our stuff from the US, but there is nothing on the //e now, the latest being Prince of Persia (Which is in 18 sector format), and Rad is still attempting to crack it, even though it has been cracked in the US... anyway, I hope that explains a little, if you have anymore questions, just ask...

Neg.
